Hey [REDACTED]

It looks like we are going to be really really close to our target for June. It looks like we have a good amount of idle facilities in UNSC (6 miles). Any chance we can knock that out this month? We are going to need every mile we can get. There is also a bunch (16) in PEND that I know is really close to UNSC. I am just curious how you guys are looking at this work and if you think we can get to it as it seems relatively quick work.

Thanks,
