All,

Attached is the weekly condensed System Hardening DOT report as of 6/17/21.

Regarding Power BI, we have several more demos setup with additional PG&E interested team members this coming week, and are aiming to schedule a final demo with the broader PMO team for mobile use approval. In the meantime, I recommend to check if you have access to the Power BI application on your desktop computer.

Thank you again for your patience. Please let us know if you have questions or feedback in the meantime.

Thank you,
