Sorry, no. It was in an excel file that you took on from [REDACTED] it has several graphs with plan/actual lines that we used to populate the Friday program reports.

Hey [Redacted]

Sorry must be that time of day when my brain activity becomes as fast as a molasses but could you elaborate?

Were you referring to the graph we cobbled up during our 3 year model creations efforts? I've attached the most recent update to the model for reference. (Not completed!)

Like this?

Or the cumulative view?

Could you please send Ivy and I a copy of the file that contains last years plan to actual graph for estimating? I wanted Ivy to be able to look at how we gathered and presented the data.
