Pursuant of 42 U.S.C. 263 a (i)(I)(B) and 42 C.F.R. 493.1840(a)(2) your laboratory's CLIA certificate may be revoked if the laboratory performs any tests not within the category of laboratory examinations authorized by your CLIA certificate. Please be advised that any person who intentionally violates the mandates of CLIA shall be subject to imprisonment, or fines, or both. See 42 U.S.C. 263a(l).

If in the future you wish to reapply for a Certificate for moderate or high complexity testing, you must notify Laboratory Field Services and submit to an inspection before such testing may begin. This inspection must find the laboratory in compliance with all CLIA condition-level requirements found at 42 C.F.R. Part 493 before the laboratory may resume moderate or high complexity testing.

For changes in certificate type, your laboratory must pay the appropriate certificate fee and/or compliance fee before the change can be effective.

NOTE: This notification of change form is acceptable only if signed by the director of the laboratory.

Dear Rona

This letter is to inform you that December 17th, 2014 was my last day of employment at Theranos, Inc (CLF 341367, 05D2025714), operating at 7333 Gateway Blvd Newark CA, 94560.

Accordingly, I wish to be removed immediately as the Laboratory Director of record for Theranos.

Furthermore, I wish to make it clear that I do not sign off, endorse, or medically support, any laboratory results reported from Theranos after December 17th, 2014.

Sincerely,

Adam Rosendorff, MD
