Elizabeth,

Thanks for making the meeting work on Friday the 17th. I will let you know closer to the meeting who will be coming. I don't think Andreas will be able to make the trip, but I will work to find another date for the two of you to meet. As I mentioned, the Niarchos Foundation office is putting together a list of topics they would like to cover and I will plan to get this to you in advance.

I look forward to seeing you on the 17th.

Best, Dan

Dan:

Thanks for this.

We look forward to having you all here. It would be wonderful to have Andreas here for this visit, but if he is not able to come on this trip I am very much looking forward to meeting him soon.

We can confirm the 17th of October, and can plan on starting at 9:00 AM or later that morning.

With my very best regards,

Elizabeth

Elizabeth,

I would like to try to find a time to come out to California with Vasili Tsamis and one other individual from the Stavros Niarchos Foundation to meet with you and your team. Given his current schedule, Andreas may not be able to make this trip, but if he is not able to make this trip, he looks forward to finding a time to meet with you in California or in New York if you plan to be here anytime in the near future.

The two dates that work well for the Niarchos group and me to meet in California are Friday October 17 or Monday October 27. We would fly out the night before and be available to meet starting in the morning. We will plan to fly back late in the day. Please let me know if one of these dates will work for you and your team. We will plan to send you a list of topics the group would like to cover in advance of coming out.

I look forward to seeing you and meeting your team.

Best, Dan
