Elizabeth,

Thanks. I will look forward to seeing you on Friday at 10am. I will find a time to get you together with Andreas, who I think you would enjoy. It is unfortunate that he has a lot going on in his personal life at the moment and feels he needs to be in New York. Fortunately, Andreas trusts my judgement (as well as Dr. Kissinger's) and I am keeping him fully up to speed.

Best, Dan

Dan:

Thanks for this note.

It was great to have Jerry and the Devos family here. I look forward to meeting Rich. We had a wonderful discussion with Doug and Cheri on our work and shared mission to do good in the world.

I've been looking forward to seeing you Friday. Likewise on Andreas –and if he is ever out on the west coast he is welcome here.

We took a look at the list from the Foundation. There may be some other ways we can cover some of the information they seem to be interested in; we'll cover all we can share in the meeting, and let them know what's relevant in other areas/what we don't have the ability or in some cases permissions to share.

We could start at 10 AM Friday and go to 1:00 PM.

See you soon,
Elizabeth

Elizabeth,

I got a great report from Jerry Tubergen after your meeting, which obviously went very well. I hope you enjoyed the meeting as much as they did. At some point, I hope to arrange a meeting with Rich DeVos, who is Doug's and Cheri's father. He is terrific person.

We are set to meet on Friday with the group from the Niarchos Foundation. Unfortunately, as I suspected, Andreas can't make it. Although it is not critical to completing an investment, I do want to find a time for you to meet him. If you have any opportunity to be in New York, please let me know and I will see that it happens.

The individuals coming with me from the Niarchos Foundation include Vasili Tsamis (Chief Operating Officer), Rick Petty (Chief Investment Officer) and John Czvekus (member of the investment group). I have attached the list they prepared of information and topics they would like to cover. I hope none of this information causes any concern, but let me know if it does.

We are all flying in on Thursday night and can start anytime in the morning on Friday. We are all on a 3pm flight from San Francisco back to New York so we will probably need to leave about 1pm.

I look forward to seeing you on Friday.

Best, Dan
