Wonderful sunny, thank you! Jerry often overlooks forwarding things so please feel free to cc me so they aren't missed over here - especially if you need something from us like signatures or getting meeting scheduled. My job is to help in whatever way I can to get stuff done and not let things fall through the cracks. I appreciate the color on reporting, helps me in managing those expectations on this end. A cap chart isn't necessary, but certainly would help me manage my internal reporting, but only if your comfortable sharing that at some point post close - And if you prefer a redacted version to keep other investor names confidential, that works too.

As I'm sure Jerry has told you, RDV is excited to have this opportunity to invest with Theranos. And the family is really looking forward to a long and mutually rewarding relationship.

Take care, you'll have docs tomorrow and I will get the wire out by Friday.
