Bump. We now have no Edison 3.0s to tear-down. Please let us know which Edison 3.0s can be made available for this by end of day today.

Thanks,

Sani

Hi Sam and Surekha,

I know Farzin has had some conversations with you both regarding this. Please send us any Edison 3.0s that are in a failure status so we can incorporate into our Edison 3.5 retrofit effort. At our current pace we will need additional machines by end of tomorrow to not impede this progress.

I can help coordinate the delivery, just need to know which devices can go and where they are.

Thanks,

Sani Hadziahmetovic
