Folks

It is critical we get the data binder in the hands of the TAB folks ASAP. Plus I think we should give them the two publications. We should have mini-Lab finished this week - at least that is what I am pushing for.

Next step is to carefully think through the meeting and what we want to accomplish. I propose we set up a meeting to do that and involve whomever you believe makes sense in that planning effort. We should certainly set aside time to have an update on the Exponent activity.

Dan, I am hoping you can pull together the planning meeting for us - I am gone the week between Christmas and New Years so let's get this out of the way before then

Channing
