On behalf of the American Pain Foundation I would like to request a $25,000 unrestricted educational grant from Cephalon to support the production and distribution of the American Pain Foundation's new book, Treatment Options For Pain. This book will present a comprehensive array of common pain treatment options along with important information about self-care and help in how to communicate about your pain with your healthcare provider. The book has an impressive group of contributing authors and will be an important resource for many thousands of people seeking treatment for their pain.

Sincerely,
