Hi Joya and Melissa,

Thanks for helping me clear this up.

I can use the 4" x 1" pi's. I'd like to arrange the following shipment to each of the reps:

- 2 packs of KADI9ETOH (I believe each pack contains 25 individual items, for a total of 50)

- 50 pi's

I'd like for the reps to receive these materials on Tuesday of next week if possible.

One of our reps has recently moved so I've attached an updated address file for your reference.

Please let me know if you have any questions, and thanks again for your help.

Nathalie

Well, there you go, Nathalie. There must have been some Kadian PI's produced by another printer and shipped to Digital Direct. Melissa's count of 4,999 pieces must be accurate and it sounds like they are current PI's. Can you use those 4"x1" PI's? And/or do you need to order some more?

Joya
It has distributed by: Actavis Kadian LLC on the third page. These PI's are folded to 4"x1" they shipped from Purepac Pharmaceutical Company. They also have 40-9101 on them.

Hi Nathalie,

I looked up the only order of Kadian PI's that Tursack printed for Actavis. You're right, we printed 5400 & shipped all 5400 out via Fed-X. (18 reps each got 300 PI's). So, that said, I think that Digital Direct may have some old PI's with Alpharma's information on them.

Missy – on page 3 of the PI, in the bottom right, does it say: Distributed by: Actavis Kadian LLC...(Actavis address)...40-9101? That's what the most recent version looks like. You may have old inventory over there.

Melissa,

We shipped a few thousand to the reps, so think there must be fewer than the reported 4,999. Can you double-check this quantity, please?

Thanks,
Nathalie

Hi Nathalie
Would this be 40-9101 Kadian PI Insert-Morphine? We received 5000 back in June.

Hi Joya,

I'm trying to track down the item number for the KADIAN package insert. Tursack printed several thousand of these for us a few months ago, but I can't find reference to the quote or the item number.

I am going to need to have more printed, but would like to know how many of these are in inventory before deciding on how many to order. Melissa needs a number in order to answer this question....

Can you help us with this?

Many thanks,

Nathalie
