Lisa,

This doesn't have anything to do with our SOM. As you know, we have been holding customers to certain Oxy levels for quite some time. Have you called Rachelle to discuss Cardinal's request first? Rachelle has done a tremendous job working with customers on Oxy so discussions should start here. This is a Sales & Marketing decision before SOM comes into play.

Nancy,

This is the exact situation I was talking about when we had the SOM conference call with Michael Clarke
What is the information Actavis needs from the customer to possibly ship more product?
Can you provide a list of items (or a form) that can be sent to the customer from Actavis?
The customer could fill out the form for Actavis' review and determine whether Actavis will ship them more product or not.
