Subject: Question: Prescriber with Controlled Substances Restrictions

RxIntegrity,

Should we stop filling control substances for this provider if the CA BOP sent out this email that provider John WINTHROP Pierce ( CA license G45225 ) license has been suspended (see copy of email below) - but showing current on the CA Medical board's website?

Provider's DEA is active. And, when I go to the CA Medical board, I see:

- PIERCE, JOHN WINTHROP
- License Number: G 45225
- License Type: Physician and Surgeon G

- License Status: License Renewed & Current

Licensee meets requirements for the practice of medicine in California.

- Expiration Date: April 30, 2021

- Secondary Status: Decision Pending Effective Date

o Decision Pending Effective Date - A Decision has been ordered by the Board, however, the effective date is pending. For more information, see the Public Record Actions section below.

- City: SAN FRANCISCO
- State: California
- County: SAN FRANCISCO
- Zip: 94110

Subject:[SPAM:##] Prescribers with Controlled Substances Restrictions

Date:2019-08-09 18:47

From:California State Board of Pharmacy <00000005e0d26dcf-dmarc-request@SUBSCRIBE.DCALISTS.CA.GOV>

To:<PHARM-GENERAL@SUBSCRIBE.DCALISTS.CA.GOV>

Reply-To:<noreply@DCA.CA.GOV>

Pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 11161.7(b), the Board of Pharmacy is distributing this list of prescribers whose authority to prescribe controlled substances has been restricted by the Medical Board of California. The board is making this information available to prevent the dispensing of prescriptions for controlled substances issued by restricted prescribers.
