Hi Lynn,

So far, we received and deleted large orders for 695 stores (81278 lines). See attached for what we have seen so far. I am currently still working on deleting orders that are coming through the system.

I will be running and providing you with a full report tomorrow morning as well.

Hi Shaeen,

We not aware of any issues that occurred last night. Do you have a couple examples of stores that reached out to you? Is the call volume high?

As a reminder, Anda has the "safety net" in the system to cancel large orders therefore stores should not be receiving large Anda orders.

Thanks!

Thank you,
Lynn

Hi Shaeen,

I have not heard anything, but I am checking with John Merritello and I will provide an update shortly.

Thanks!

Hi Lynn and Melissa,

Our customer service team has advised that we are receiving calls from stores asking us to cancel their large orders.

I have not seen anything major hit our bucket as yet, so I am not sure how massive the issue may be. Have you heard anything on your side?

Thank You,
Shaeen Suraj-Persad
