Spoke to Shane. Feedback:

MS, DB, BAML, Citi, Wells all claims to have no idea whats going on. MS called Ron late last night.

Elon hates JPM / Jamie

No chance CS as haven't been on the radar screen. I also spoke to CS who said not involved

Barcap not on their radar screen at all

Ron / Shane view is no bank is currently involved that they are aware of

I asked if Elon had spoke to Deepak yet...he asked not to answer that one but said yesterday was a crazy day trying to figure out who knew what to be able to respond to media and shareholder inquiry

Feels like they are in a tough spot at the moment
