Hi Tim,
Kelsey has run the numbers and it looks like we [REDACTED], but we are still reviewing. Once Kelsey and I have reviewed, do you want to find time to meet to discuss or would you prefer to handle via email?

Adding Jamie and Kelsey to run this through the acquisition model.

Sounds like we should aim for end of this month to have a locked perspective and financial outlook.

Those were the topline for me. There was a small thread of discussion on option four as a hybrid. [REDACTED]

Thank you both. I am glad the detail and discussion landed well for what is a key strategic choice.

I added Tim to the thread because I want to recap what I heard as the next steps:

Is there anything else I missed?

From a timing perspective the preference was is to have a something to say at the Neutron event in March and to be more expansive at Honeydew.

@Tim Stuart in the past I have worked with Kelsey & Jamie L on this. Does that work?

Diarmuid

That was an EXCELLENT session. Great framing to drive discussion rooted in the appropriate amount of detail. It's an exciting topic and you did a great job of channeling the thinking. Thanks for all the hard work to get us to today.
